

POSTAL PROPHET NOW SAYS OCT. 19

Prediction Number Empty-Six
Says Post-Office Will Move
by That Date.

Things That Intervene.

Post-office prediction number empty-six, fresh from the prophecy-room yesterday reads: "The new post-office will positively be occupied between October 12 and October 19."

The fact that instead of fixing a definite date, the post-office prophet this time allows himself a week's latitude, gives color to the belief that the long-awaited exodus is indeed imminent. For the past two months the expected removal to the new building at Tenth and Main Streets has been the one unfulfilled topic at the Federal building, the impatience growing with each recurring postponement.

"So many things have arisen to thwart our plans," said Custodian B. B. Arnold yesterday, "that in venturing another prediction, I do so in the full knowledge that it is only a frail thing dependent upon two or three factors which may easily upset it. However, I believe I can say with certainty that Richmond will wake up Sunday, October 20, to find the post-office at Tenth and Main."

Furniture All In.
The furniture bugaboo which has caused repeated delays is at last slain. Practically every important shipment is now on the floor. The furniture which is yet in transit is of minor importance only, and will not delay the transfer should the building be dedicated in all other respects.

It is a fact worth mentioning in connection with the furnishing problem that Uncle Sam keeps intimate tab on every item of furniture which goes into the new building. From the mahogany bench which graces the United States District Court room to the water cooler which slakes the thirst of the janitors, every piece is supplied and installed under an ironbound contract. No clock will tick in any of the Federal offices which is not duly billed, numbered and pedigreed in the departmental records.

Moving by Contract.
When the last government inspector will have placed his official O. K. on the new building and the structure is declared by every temporal authority to be ready and willing to receive the equipment of the temporary building at Seventh and Franklin, now in use, there will be still another wait, due to the fact that nothing can be done from the old building except under government contract. In accordance with an ironbound rule which the department enforces, no contract of this nature can be awarded except in a public competition.

Thus, before the office equipment of the United States District Court can be moved, an itemized list of the impediments must be submitted to the department in Washington, which advertises for bids and awards the contract for their removal. An electrical

These and other inconveniences still intervene between the removal from the old building and the occupation of the new. FOUR AMERICANS SLAIN IN BATTLE

The death of General Zeledon and the voluntary exile of General Mena, who started the present trouble in Nicaragua, leaves only Juan Irias, a Costa Rican exile and well known revolutionary, still in the field in Nicaragua. Admiral Southland already has reported that a force of 1,200, consisting of the First and Second Battalions of Marines and the blue jacket company, from the California and the Colorado, will advance upon Leon at once.

At Leon, Irias is practicing the same methods as used by Mena and Zeledon. He is interfering with railroad communication between Managua and Corinto, has confiscated the food supplies of the town, imprisoning those favorable to the government and exercising the greatest cruelties upon his prisoners.

ASK JUDGES TO HELP

Major Wood Begins Task of Getting Prisoners Out of Jails.

In a letter to the judges of the courts of criminal jurisdiction in the State, Major James B. Wood, Superintendent of the Penitentiary, calls attention to the statutes providing for the employment of jail prisoners on the public roads. He quotes liberally from the letter written him by Governor Mann as the result of the recent conference on the subject, when it was determined that it was desirable to take as many prisoners as possible from the jails and put them to work on the highways.

While no provision is made in law for having sheriffs and sergeants notify the Superintendent of the Penitentiary of the number of prisoners in the various jails, it is believed these officers will co-operate and furnish the information. The prisoners are to be put on the roads as fast as the State Highway Commissioner can use them.

WARRANTS ISSUED FOR JOY RIDERS

Took Mr. Pinckney's Car,
Changed Number, and Kept
It Out Over Night.

On complaint of C. Cotesworth Pinckney, warrants were issued yesterday for the arrest of C. R. Johnson and Lee Williams, on a charge of unlawfully taking his motor car from the Johnson garage, 11 West Main Street, without permission. Automobile owners generally, who have suffered at the hands of joy riders, and even the owners and managers of local garages are deeply interested in the case, for conviction may result in the elimination of a nuisance which has grown beyond bounds.

Several days ago Mr. Pinckney sent his car to the garage to be repaired. There was some delay in having it returned, and when the matter was called to the attention of the manager instructions were issued to have the work done at once, and Mr. Pinckney was notified that he could get the car yesterday afternoon. When he called, it could not be found. After a search showed that the car was not there, much to the surprise of everybody it raced up to the door with a flat tire, and otherwise damaged, with Johnson and Williams calmly occupying the front seat. Chauffeurs and others did not look up a second time, but Mr. Pinckney looked hard, for he recognized his car, even though his own number had been removed and another substituted. Then somebody remarked that Johnson and Williams took the car away on Friday and apparently to disguise it, they tacked on a Kentucky license and another local number which had been picked from under the seat of a machine which happened to have two. Mr. Pinckney's license tag was not in sight.

The car was taken without the knowledge or consent of the garage manager, but the proceeding was high-handed that Mr. Pinckney decided to have Williams and Johnson, who are mechanics, arrested. Dealers and owners said last night that he had blazed the way for a big joy-riding reform by appealing to the police and the courts.

Consumption

Any one interested in the treatment of Consumption should get one of the booklets telling of recoveries by the use of Eckman's Alternative. Coughs, Stomach Colds and Pneumonia may be the beginning of more serious trouble—Eckman's Alternative is the effective remedy. Read Mr. Kanaly's statement:

"Gentlemen: For five or six years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Consumption by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit."

"At Christmas time, I was not expected to live. Calling Dr. R. H. McCarthy, he advised the use of Eckman's Alternative, which I took with excellent results, and was entirely cured. I have gained in weight. I go out in all weathers, and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alternative."

(Sworn affidavit) JAS. W. KANALY.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles and in rebuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by druggists. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.—Advertisement.
